MANY HEAR TALKS OF DR. WILLIAMS

During the past week in which Dr. R. D. Williams, President of Mid-Pacific Institute, Honolulu, has been visiting Kauai he has met twelve audiences comprising over twelve hundred people.

His sleight-of-hand performances at Waimea, Elele and Lihue were under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. clubs. From the rows of children sitting on the floor to the late comers standing in the crowded doorways all eyes were popping at the wonders performed. And when he produced live rabbits from a school-mate's coat, the youngsters screamed their delight.

Trucks and plantation trains carried the Y. M. C. A. boys from outlying neighborhoods to the entertainment centers. The Filipino orchestra from the "Camp Four" club, Makaweli, added to the pleasure of the evenings at Waimea and Elele. Messrs. T. Brandt, K. Roendahl, and W. C. Avery, all members of the Kauai Young Men's Christian Association county committee, presided at the programs in their respective communities.

Lihue Church Service

There was a large and appreciative audience at the Lihue Union Church on Sunday last in spite of counter attractions that drew away some. The music was more than usually fine, including an inspiring anthem, "Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem," by the full choir, and a very sympathetic rendering of the vocal classic, "Calvary," by Mrs. K. C. Ahana. Dr. Robert Day Williams, President of the Mid-Pacific Institute, occupied the pulpit and delivered a very thoughtful and suggestive address on the theme, "Positive Christianity."

Dance At Waimea

A picture show and dance will be put on at the Waimea hall Saturday evening next by the National Guard companies there, the affair being for the benefit of the treasuries of the companies. A small admission charge will be made, and everybody is invited.

New Choral Society

A meeting will be held at the home of the Knudsen in Kekaha on the evening of Friday, October 20, for the purpose of organizing a choral society. The affair will start at 7:15 o'clock.

MOKIHANA CLUB AGAIN AT WORK

The opening meeting of the Mokihana Club for the year was held at Lihue Social hall on Wednesday, with what was probably the largest attendance on record. The president, Miss Elsie Wilcox, was in the chair, herself and Mrs. J. M. Lydgate acting as hostesses. Among matters of business the feasibility and desirability of employing and "standing good for" a district nurse was considered and finally referred to a special committee for report later. The special order of the day was an address by Dr. R. D. Williams, President of Mid-Pacific Institute, on "Present Tendencies in Education" in which he dwelt in an interesting and illuminating way on the great and beneficial changes that are taking place in education and that promise to make the training of the coming generations much more efficient, as well as more enjoyable.

It is interesting to note that this is now the eleventh year of the existence of this popular club, and that more than ever it is a power for good in the community. It will devote the coming year largely to civic problems.

Wedding Anniversary

Today is the 44th anniversary of the wedding of Hon. and Mrs. William Hyde Rice, of Lihue, and congratulatory cables were sent them from Kauai last night. Mr. and Mrs. Rice have taken a house in Berkeley and will stay there until December 27, when they will leisurely return home.

Arrested For Profanity

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of C. Q. Ako, a clerk in the office of the Kauai Railway Company, for profanity. The warrant was sworn to by Manager F. C. Morrow, of the Kauai Telephonic Company, and charges bad language used to Mrs. Miyake, operator in the Waimea office of the company.

Kekaha's Half-Mast Flag

Passers-by have observed the flag of Kekaha school flying at half mast, and perhaps have wondered what prominent citizen has passed to the Great Beyond, or if some other calamity had befallen the place. The only calamity is very much knotted halyards, so the authorities have been asked to supply new ones.

The condition of Mr. R. L. Hughes, of Elele, has not been so encouraging in the past week.

WILLIAMS MEETS PEOPLE OF LIHUE

At the request of Dr. Robert Day Williams a number of persons interested in the educational and economic problems of the Islands gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox on Sunday afternoon to advise with him as to how the schools of the Mid-Pacific Institute might best meet these problems.

After a brief statement of the aims and purposes of these schools, and the lines of endeavor which had been established he called for suggestions as to what kind of an education they ought to give the young people in order to make them efficient and useful and thus fit them best for their life work.

After some little hesitation and some little "priming," the factors of debate were awakened and some very live discussion followed, interspersed with gleams of caustic wit and repartee, which made it a most enjoyable occasion. Just how much information, or benefit, Dr. Williams got out of it may be a question, but his audience got a great deal, and many expressed the wish that such conferences might come often.

On the whole the drift of opinion was toward a more practical agricultural training, with the assurance that our future lay in that direction, and that rich prizes were in store for any boy who would familiarize himself with the sugar business, and devote himself to it with intelligence and industry; that, now at any rate, the prospects were much more promising in agricultural than in commercial pursuits. It was time to call a halt on turning out bookkeepers and typewriters, who hated most of all to soil their hands, and give the island, for a while anyway, farmers and artisans.

Chamber of Commerce

A regular business meeting of the Kauai Chamber of Commerce will be held in the court house at Waimea Thursday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. A number of important subjects are to come up. At the meeting President Patterson will announce his committees for the new year.

Officers Resign

The resignation of Major W. D. McBryde from the National Guard has been accepted. A contemplated trip abroad and health are given as the reasons. Captain Chas. H. Wilcox, regimental adjutant, has also resigned on account of being a candidate for the Legislature.

Pig Rancher Crowell

Deputy Sheriff W. O. Crowell has the "makings" of a pig ranch today, but, strange to say, is not pleased with his property. An attachment was issued by the Waimea district magistrate against a Japanese. Crowell went out to serve the paper and all he could find was a bunch of 34 pigs. He took the squealers into custody, and then the question of what should be done with them dawned. It is necessary that they be kept for thirty days before being sold. In despair Crowell telephoned Sheriff Rice to know what he should do with the pigs. "Tak'em to bed with you" was the reply. It is understood that Crowell will not carry out the instructions, but has made other arrangements for keeping the young porkers until they are redeemed or sold.

SUDDEN DEATH OF THE REV. S. KAPU

Rev. S. Kapu, recently called to the pastorate of the Lihue Hawaiian Church, passed away at his home Saturday night. He had been ailing for some time, but his intimate friends did not realize that there was any immediate danger until the end came.

The deceased was among the most gifted and able of Hawaiian pastors, especially fluent, graceful and forcible as a speaker. His death will be a serious loss to the Hawaiian ministry, the ranks of which are being steadily thinned by death and old age.

Mr. Kapu came to Lihue two or three months ago from Lahaina, where he had been in the employ of the board of education as a teacher of music and hygiene in the historic school of Lahainaluna. He had the rare distinction, for a Hawaiian, of teaching these difficult and technical subjects in English. Prior to that time he had filled several of the more important pastorates of the Islands.

He leaves a widow and four small children.

LINEN SHOWER FOR A COMING BRIDE

Mrs. W. N. Stewart and the Misses Sheldon, Lihue, were the hostesses at a linen shower given in honor of Miss Maria Ellis, whose engagement to Mr. Martin Dreier was recently announced. The home of Mrs. Stewart was most beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and exquisite cut flowers. An innocent looking Boston Fern was suspended over a sofa on which sat the guest of honor, and upon a concealed ribbon being pulled, a shower of dainty looking parcels fell about her.

Amid much merriment, the ribbons were untied, disclosing most beautifully embroidered articles. After all had been examined and admired, the guests were seated at beautifully appointed tables where delicious refreshments were served.

During the afternoon several songs were sung by Mrs. Henry Sheldon, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Ahana and the Misses Sheldon. Mrs. H. Sheldon and Mrs. Ahana gave several lovely solos which were much appreciated by the guests.

Miss Ellis has won the good opinion of her friends by her devotion to both day and Sunday school classes in which she has labored for several years.

The guests were Mesdames C. Wilcox, Lydgate, Wedemeyer, Ahana, H. Sheldon, Dean, Huestace, Holt and the Misses Mumford, Jordan, Penniman, Cummings, Christian, Dunn, Holt, Elsie Wilcox, Mable Wilcox, Andrews and Denike.

Company I Wins

Owing to a misunderstanding about transportation only four members of the Hospital Corps baseball team reached Makaweli Sunday afternoon, so that the game and championship were technically forfeited to the third battalion.

Coming From War Zone

Mrs. E. A. Knudsen has received advice from a brother at Stockholm that her mother, Mrs. L'Orange, and another brother and sister will shortly arrive here. They have been in Berlin since the war began, and are just now getting out.

TODAY'S AND LATEST NEWS BY WIRELESS

Sugar, 6.27.

Honolulu—Ex-Queen Liliuokalani will rule again for a brief space on Kalakaua Day, arrangements having been made whereby she will hold a reception in the old throne room at the executive building, formerly her Palace. Ladies-in-waiting will attend, and the ceremonies will be such as to recall the old monarchy days. November 16 will be permanently recognized and noted as the birthday of the late king.

Cattle-loading on Hawaii is the subject of dispute between the steamship company and O. L. Sorenson, of the Parker Ranch.

Coast packers do not enthuse over the proposed canning merger, although local rumors still insist that the pineapple packing business in the Islands will be swallowed up by big coast combine.

Sugar is too high for stock buyers. When the additional jump came yesterday buyers lost interest and the market went flat.

Rumanians Halt Teutons

Paris—Rumanian armies in retreat have halted the Teutons near their own border. Bucharest tells of the stand made by the Rumanians and counter attacks against the German general which prove successful.

A Berlin statement has it that the whole armies are entrapped. The British continue to advance along the Struma river and the French make gains north and south of the Somme.

The Greek Overturn

London—King Constantine, of Greece, has apparently lost all semblance of power, and all new Greece breaks away and follows their leader to the Allies. The new government has been recognized by Allied governments.

Hughes Replies to Critics

Omaha—To the charge that invisible government would return in case of Republican success in November, Candidate Hughes points to his own record as governor of New York.

Wilson Sounds Warning

Wilson warns the public against Republican designs. He said that they want the army and navy to back investors and if returned to power would regain control of the banking system to use against the people.

Allies Fight Each Other

Berlin—It is reported here that a British and Italian vessel of war collided in a mist in the Messina channel and shelled each other before being identified.

New Fish Agreement

Washington—Holland has entered into an agreement with the British regarding the herring catch, and will cut off the supply of the Teutons.

New Super-Dreadnaught

It is announced that work on the new super-dreadnaught California will be rushed with all possible speed. The keel will be laid much sooner than had been expected.

Reply Not Satisfactory

The reply of Great Britain to Secretary Lansing's note in regard to interference with American and neutral mail is not satisfactory, despite the fact that concessions are made. It is not likely, however, that the subject will be taken up again until after the election.

CAPTAIN WILCOX TO BE A MAJOR

Honolulu, Oct. 16—Orders were to issue today from headquarters of the National Guard promoting Capt. Gaylord P. Wilcox, 4th Infantry, Keaia, Kauai, to rank of major.

The officer is also named in command of the second Battalion, in place of Maj. Walter McBryde, who resigned a short time ago owing to the press of private business. Wilcox is manager of the Makee Sugar Plantation, where the first armory that the Kauai guard had was erected last spring.

Much Gasoline Arrives

The Standard Oil steamer La Primera arrived at Port Allen Friday, bringing 638 tons of gasoline and kerosene. After discharging she left the following day for Honolulu.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs. S. Kapu, Lihue, takes this means of thanking kind friends for sympathy during her recent bereavement.

Kau Sells Land

The following deed has been filed in the office of the bureau of conveyances:
ISSAC S. KAU & WF to Mrs. Elizabeth K. Ellis, int in R P 4082 Kul 3269, Lihue, Kauai, Sept 30, 1916. $125.

Achong Ai Chang, for a long time clerk to the county sheriff, has retired and returned to his old home in Honolulu.

Dr. Braley Leaving

Dr. A. C. Braley, dentist, who has been substituting for Dr. A. J. Derby in Lihue during the latter's absence on the mainland, will be leaving about the first of the month for Honolulu where he will rejoin Mrs. Braley and their two children. It is the intention of the Braleys to make their home in the city. Dr. Braley has made many friends on Kauai and the general hope was that he might find it well to stay here.

Soccer To Come Next

A series of soccer games will be arranged by the athletic officers of the National Guard. It is understood that the contests will be by localities, in place of by companies.

PASSENGERS DEPARTED

The following sailed by the Kinau Saturday night for Honolulu: J. S. Chandler, P. F. Riley, I. Asano, Mrs. Asano, N. Hara, Miss A. Freitas, A. Traan, M. Viera, Achong Ai, J. C. Jerves, D. Semple, W. A. Ramsey, T. M. Church, P. Kaio, Mrs. P. Kaio, Miss E. C. Wagner, Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, See Kau, L. Mahikoa, E. Reyher, M. Freitas and thirty-two deck.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hardy, of Waimea, who have been visiting in Honolulu, returned home Wednesday morning.

It is reported from Honolulu that Delegate Kuhio considers Kauai safe enough so will not bother to come over here this year.

Dr. Williams gave a very enjoyable sleight-of-hand exhibition in Lihue Social hall last evening before quite a full audience.
